

MOLESCROFT PRIMARY SCHOOL – POLICY ON SCHOOL TEACHERS’ PAY FOR 1 SEPTEMBER 2016 TO 31 AUGUST 2017

BASIC PRINCIPLES

POLICY	GUIDANCE
OPENING STATEMENT This policy sets out the framework for making decisions on teachers’ pay. All teachers employed at Molescroft Primary school are paid in accordance with this policy which has been developed to comply with current legislation and the requirements of the School Teachers’ Pay and Conditions Document (STPCD). A copy of the latest version may be found in the school office and is also on-line at https://www.gov.uk/government/.../school-teachers-pay-and-conditions-2016 The school has adopted the standards framework attached at appendix 1 and the pay tables and pay reference points attached for reference at Appendix 1. The aim of this pay policy is to assist the Governing Body in managing pay and grading issues to:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • assure the quality of teaching and learning at the school; • support recruitment and retention and reward teachers appropriately; • and ensure accountability, transparency, objectivity and equality of opportunity All pay-related decisions are made having regard to the school staffing structure and school improvement plan, whilst having due regard to the constraints exercised by the annual budget allocation. The Governing Body will publish a whole school Staffing Structure. This is included in the Staff Handbook which all teachers have a copy of and may request another from the Head Teacher. Should it subsequently be necessary to propose amendments to the Staffing Structure, consultation will take place, as appropriate. All pay related decisions are taken in compliance with the following:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employment Relations Act 1999 	The changes in this policy are in accordance with the STPCD2016 This model pay policy only covers school teachers, whose statutory pay and conditions of service fall under the terms of the STPCD. This policy does not cover support staff, which have their own pay determination mechanism.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Equality Act 2010 • Employment Rights Act 1996 • The Part-time Workers (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2000 • The Fixed-term Employees (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2002 • The Agency Workers Regulations 2010 The implementation, review and operation and monitoring of this policy will be the responsibility of the Governing Body, through its Finance Committee and advised by the School's Headteacher. It is intended that the school staffing budget will include an annual allocation to cover the total cost of existing and any additional planned salaries, pay increases and pay progression, including any likely performance progression as determined by this policy Teachers and unions have been consulted on this policy. Changes to this policy or appendices will be communicated to all staff in a manner designed to draw their attention to the changes. The policy will be reviewed annually or as otherwise required.
PAY REVIEWS The Governing Body will ensure that every teacher's salary is reviewed annually with effect from 1 September and give them a written statement, at the earliest opportunity and in any event not later than one month after the determination. Reviews may take place at other times of the year to reflect any changes in circumstances or job description that lead to a change in the basis for calculating an individual's pay. A written statement will be given after any review and where applicable will give information about the basis on which it was made.	Written statements must be in accordance with paragraph 3.4 of the STPCD. a revised pay statement must also be given where there are any other changes in pay arrangements in the year.
TEACHERS PAID A SAFEGUARDARD SUM Where a pay determination leads or may lead to the start of a period of safeguarding, the governing body will comply with the relevant provisions of the STPCD and give the required notification as soon as possible and no later than one month after the date of the determination.	In accordance with Part 5 of the STPCD.

PAY DETERMINATION ON APPOINTMENT The Governing Body will determine the pay range for a vacancy prior to advertising it and on appointment it will determine the starting salary within that range to be offered to the successful candidate, having regard to the standards framework and pay reference tables and points adopted and referenced at appendix 1. In making such determinations, the Governing Body may take into account the nature of the post , the level of qualifications, skills and experience required, market conditions and the wider school context	Reference is made in the opening statement of this adopted policy and the Governing Body’s intention in respect of the school staffing budget
RECRUITMENT AND RETENTION INCENTIVES AND BENEFITS The Governing Body may make such payments or provide such other financial assistance, support or benefits to a teacher as it considers to be necessary as an incentive for the recruitment of new teachers and the retention in their service of existing teachers. Where the Governing Body is making one or more such payments, or providing such financial assistance, support or benefits in one or more cases, the relevant body must conduct a regular formal review of all such awards. The relevant body should make clear at the outset the expected duration of any such incentives and benefits, and the review date after which they may be withdrawn. The Governing Body will determine whether an annual allowance will be paid with monthly salary or as a lump sum at the end of a fixed period. Where a teacher is given an incentive or benefit in accordance with the STPCD, written notification given at the time of the award should state: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • whether the award is for recruitment or retention; • the nature of the award (cash sums, travel or housing costs etc) • when/how it will be paid (as applicable); • unless it is a ‘one-off’ award, the start date and the expected duration of the incentive; and • the basis for any uplifts which will be applied (as 	Any award made will be made in accordance with paragraph 27 of the STPCD and will be for a fixed duration. Whilst there isn’t a maximum, regular formal reviews of all such awards must be made, to ensure the criteria for awarding the incentive are still met and justifiable to prevent any equal pay challenge. Headteachers, Deputy Headteachers and assistant Headteachers may not be awarded a Recruitment and retention incentive payment other than as reimbursement of reasonably incurred housing or relocation costs as this is taken into consideration when determining the pay range. Where the relevant body paid a recruitment or retention incentive or benefit awarded to a Headteacher, deputy or assistant Headteacher under a previous document, subject to review, it may continue to make that payment at its existing

applicable).	value until such time as the respective pay range is determined under this Document. Payments under paragraph 27 may only be used for recruitment and retention purposes, not for carrying out specific responsibilities or to supplement pay for other reasons. Recruitment and Retention Payments should only be made where the decision is supported by objective data on recruitment statistics, staff turnover and the local labour market. The Governing body may wish to consult with TU when considering recruitment and retention issues.
PAY PROGRESSION BASED ON PERFORMANCE All teachers can expect to receive regular, constructive feedback on their performance and are subject to annual appraisal that recognises their strengths, informs plans for their future development, and helps to enhance their professional practice. The arrangements for teacher appraisal are set out in the school's appraisal policy. Decisions regarding pay progression will be made with reference to the teachers' appraisal reports and the pay recommendations they contain. In the case of NQTs, pay decisions will be made by means of the statutory induction process. On successful completion of the statutory induction period, the evidence from induction will inform the decisions on their pay progression calculated according to their progress against the framework and the pay tables and pay reference points attached at appendix 1. It will be possible for a 'no progression' determination to be made without recourse to the capability procedure on the first formal appraisal. Assessment of Performance To be fair and transparent, assessments of performance will be properly rooted in evidence. In this school we will	The governing body must ensure that its processes are open, transparent and fair. All decisions will be objectively justified. Adjustments will be made to take account of special circumstances, e.g. an absence on maternity or long-term sick leave. The exact adjustments will be made on a case-by-case basis, depending on the individual teacher's circumstances and the school's circumstances.

ensure that appraisal is a supportive, developmental process designed to ensure that teachers have the skills and support they need to carry out their role effectively. We will promote fairness by ensuring objectives and assessments are set using the standards framework and teachers standards attached to this policy. The evidence we will use will include self-assessment, tracking pupil progress, lesson observations, but may also include peer review, the views of pupils and parents in accordance with the schools appraisal policy Teachers’ appraisal reports will contain pay recommendations. Final decisions about whether or not to accept a pay recommendation will be made by the Governing Body, having regard to the appraisal report and taking into account advice from the head teacher/senior leadership team. The Governing Body will consider its approach in the light of the school’s budget and ensure that appropriate funding is allocated for pay progression at all levels. In this school, judgements of performance will be made against the framework at appendix 1	Reference is made in the opening statement of this adopted policy and the Governing Body’s intention in respect of the school staffing budget
MOVEMENT TO UPPER PAY RANGE Applications and Evidence Any qualified teacher may apply to be paid on the upper pay range and any such application must be assessed in line with this policy and attached standards framework. It is the responsibility of the teacher to decide whether or not they wish to apply to be paid on the upper pay range. Applications may be made once a year by application form and in accordance with the eligibility criteria outlined on the application form attached at Appendix 2. If a teacher is simultaneously employed at another school(s), they may submit separate applications if they wish to apply to be paid on the upper pay range in that school or schools. This school will not be bound by any pay decision made by another school. All applications should include the results of reviews or appraisals for teacher’s two most recent appraisal reports, including any recommendation on pay (or, where that information is not applicable or available, a statement and summary of evidence designed to demonstrate that the applicant has met the assessment criteria).

Applications forms are attached at appendix 2 and should be completed, with accompanying evidence for the relevant period and submitted to the appropriate line manager by the date indicated on the application -form.

Assessment

An application from a qualified teacher will be successful where the Governing Body is satisfied that:

- (a) the teacher is highly competent in all elements of the relevant standards; and
- (b) the teacher’s achievements and contribution to the school are substantial and sustained.

For the purposes of this pay policy highly competent means: the teacher’s performance is assessed as having the necessary depth and breadth of knowledge, skill and understanding of the Teachers’ Standards in the particular role they are fulfilling and the context in which they are working to provide coaching and mentoring to other teachers, give advice to them and demonstrate to them effective teaching practice and how to make a wider contribution to the work of the school.

For the purposes of this pay policy substantial means: the teacher’s achievements and contribution to the school are significant, not just in raising standards of teaching and learning in their own classroom, or with their own groups of children, but also in making a significant wider contribution to school improvement, which impacts on pupil progress and the effectiveness of staff and colleagues.

For the purposes of this pay policy sustained means: the teacher must have had two consecutive successful appraisal reports in this school and have made good progress towards their objectives during this period (There may be exceptions where such information is not applicable or available, e.g. those returning from maternity or sickness absence, a written statement and summary of evidence designed to demonstrate that the applicant has met the assessment criteria may be submitted in these circumstances). They will have been expected to have shown that their teaching expertise has grown over the relevant period and is consistently good to outstanding.

Further information, including information on sources of evidence is contained within the attached framework and the school’s appraisal policy.

Deadline is Wednesday 12th October 2016.

Teachers who provide coaching and mentoring to other teachers, must have the knowledge and skills to apply procedures fairly and demonstrate continuous professional development

Where the standards of performance are likely to fall short of the requirements for movement to UPR this should be raised with the teacher to ensure that the appraisal is a supportive, developmental process.

Where it is agreed that there are exceptional circumstances discretion may be exercised in respect of the assessment and feedback dates.

The assessment will be made by the Head Teacher in consultation with the relevant Assistant Head Teacher (line manager) . If successful, applicants will move to the upper pay range at the start of the academic year. If unsuccessful, feedback will normally be provided by the line manager within 10 working days of the decision. The Governing Body will make the final determination in accordance with the attached appeals procedure at Appendix 3
APPEALS The governing body has an appeals procedure in relation to pay as set out in Appendix 3 to this pay policy. The arrangements for considering appeals are as follows: A teacher may seek a review of any determination in relation to his/her pay or any other decision taken by the governing body (or a committee or individual acting with delegated authority) that affects his/her pay on the basis that the person or committee by whom the decision was made incorrectly applied any provision of the STPCD and/ or school pay policy.	It is recommended that the attached appeals procedure is adopted as it is in accordance with the ACAS code of Practice for addressing grievances. Schools may wish to include a form for recording the informal stages of the appeals process.
PAY RANGE FOR HEAD TEACHERS The head teacher groups, and guidance for setting leadership pay ranges in relation thereto, are as attached at Appendix 4. There are 3 stages when setting the pay for new appointments to headship:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stage 1 – Defining the role and determining the headteacher group • Stage 2 – Setting the indicative pay range • Stage 3 – Deciding the starting salary and individual pay range The Governing Body will consider whether there is any relevant benchmarking information and/or HR advice when making a judgement on determining the pay range. In exceptional circumstances the Governing Body may consider setting a range that exceeds the maximum of the head teacher group by up to an additional 25% for e.g where there is significant difficulty in making an appointment. The Governing Body may, in only wholly exceptional	Appointments to pay ranges must be in accordance with Part 2 of the STPCD. Changes to determine the leadership group pay will only be applied to individuals appointed on or after 1 September 2014, or whose responsibilities significantly change on or after 1 September 2014 The maximum of the Head teachers pay range plus any additional temporary payments under paragraph 10 must not exceed the maximum of the Head teacher group by more than 25 % unless there are

circumstances consider setting the Headteacher’s pay range more than an additional 25% higher than the maximum of the Headteacher group. In these circumstances a business case will be made and independent advice sought to ensure that the decision can be justified. The Governing Body will agree performance objectives with the Headteacher, after receiving the advice of their external adviser, in accordance with the prevailing performance management legislation. The Governing Body will review performance against objectives set for the preceding year, again receiving advice from their external adviser. The Headteacher must demonstrate sustained high quality of performance in order to be considered for a performance point(s) increase. To be fair and transparent, judgements must be properly rooted in evidence and be made having regard to the most recent appraisals or reviews. Taking such performance into account, the Governing Body will determine whether no, one or more than one point are to be awarded for progression within the pay range. Progression within the range will be effective from 01 September each year. Leadership Group progression will be taken fully into account. Annual pay progression within the range for this post is not automatic. Any progression will normally be by one point, but the governing body may consider movement by more than one points in exceptional circumstances.	exceptional circumstances supported by a business case
DEPUTIES AND ASSISTANT HEAD TEACHERS The Governing Body will review Deputy or Assistant Headteacher’s pay range if it is determined that there is a need for consistency with pay arrangements for new appointments to the leadership group or with a member or members of the leadership group whose responsibilities have significantly changed in accordance with Appendix 4. The maximum of the Deputy or Assistant Head teacher’s pay range will not exceed the maximum of the Headteacher group for the school unless there are exceptional circumstances. The Governing Body will determine a pay range from the Pay Spine for the Leadership Group for each Deputy Headteacher and Assistant Headteacher.	Appointments to pay ranges must be in accordance with Part 2 of the STPCD. Determination of Leadership pay range is in accordance with paragraph 9 of the STPCD

The individual pay ranges set will reflect the relative responsibilities and job weight of the roles concerned. The Governing Body when determining the pay range will take into account and record all the permanent responsibilities of the role, any challenges that are specific to the role, how the role fits within the wider leadership structure of the school and have significant scope for progression. The Governing Body will be advised by the Headteacher of performance against objectives agreed for the preceding year, and must have regard to any recommendation on pay progression recorded in the teacher's most recent planning and review statement. The Governing Body will take this into account when determining whether to award pay point progression (if any) within the individual range. Progression within the range will be based on evidence of sustained high quality of overall performance. To evaluate that there has been high quality performance, the performance review will need to assess that the Leadership Group member has grown professionally by developing their leadership and (where relevant) teaching expertise. Any increase in pay will be effective from 1 September each year.
LEADING PRACTITIONERS The Governing Body will determine the pay of a Leading Practitioner post in accordance with the STPCD. Leading Practitioner Pay Range is attached at Appendix 1	Leading practitioner posts should be referenced on the schools staffing structure contained in the Staff Handbook.
PART-TIME TEACHERS Teachers employed on an ongoing basis at the school but who work less than a full working week are deemed to be part-time. The Governing Body will give them a written statement detailing their working time obligations and the standard mechanism used to determine their pay, subject to the provisions of the statutory pay and working time arrangements and by comparison with the school's timetabled teaching week for a full-time teacher in an equivalent post.	Governing bodies are responsible for ensuring that part-time teachers, (including teachers on job share contracts) have a clear statement of the sessions and hours they will be required to work and that the STPCD in relation to part-time teachers' pay and working time, is applied (paragraph 41 refers)

SHORT NOTICE/SUPPLY TEACHERS Teachers who work on a day-to-day or other short notice basis have their pay determined in line with the framework for new appointments i.e. the job and grade is determined prior to recruitment. Teachers employed on a day-to-day or other short notice basis will be paid on a daily basis calculated on the assumption that a full working year consists of 195 days; periods of employment for less than a day being calculated pro-rata.	Such teachers will be paid in accordance with paragraph 43 of the Document. A day is paid at 1/195 of the full salary; hourly rates are 1/1265 of full salary
UNQUALIFIED TEACHERS The pay committee will pay any unqualified teacher in accordance with the STPCD. The Governing Body will determine where a newly appointed unqualified teacher will enter the scale, having regard to any qualifications or experience s/he may have, which they consider to be of value. The Governing Body will consider whether it wishes to pay an additional allowance, in accordance with the STPCD. Unqualified Teachers' Allowance The governing body will pay an unqualified teachers' allowance to unqualified teachers when the governing body consider their basic salary is not adequate having regard to their responsibilities, qualifications and experience.	In accordance with paragraph 17 of the STPCD In accordance with paragraph 22 of the STPCD
TEACHING AND LEARNING RESPONSIBILITY PAYMENTS (TLRS) The Governing Body may award a TLR to a classroom teacher in accordance with the STPCD. Unqualified teachers may not be awarded TLRs TLR 1 or 2 will be for clearly defined and sustained additional responsibility in the context of the schools staffing structure for the purpose of ensuring the continued delivery of high quality teaching and learning. All job descriptions will be regularly reviewed and will make clear, if applicable, the responsibility or package of responsibilities for which a TLR is awarded, taking into account the criterion and factors as set out in the STPCD The pay committee may award a TLR3 for clearly time-limited school improvement projects, or one-off externally driven responsibilities. The governing body will set out in writing to the teacher the duration of the fixed term, and	TLRs may only be awarded in the context of the school's staffing structure and pay policy. A teacher may not be awarded more than one TLR concurrently. Following the review of staffing structures, the implementation plan should be attached to the school's pay policy. –Part 4 of STPCD sets out the responsibility criteria and the ranges to be applied.

the amount of the award will be, in accordance with the range stipulated in the STPCD, for a specified amount paid in monthly instalments. No safeguarding will apply in relation to an award of a TLR3. TLRs1 & 2 are awarded to the holders of the posts indicated in the attached staffing structure.
SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS ALLOWANCES (SEN) The Governing Body will award an SEN spot value allowance on a range as stipulated in the STPCD, to any classroom teacher who meets the following criteria in the STPCD. Where the allowance is payable the school will determine the spot value of the allowance for each relevant teacher taking in to consideration the structure of the SEN provision and the following factors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • whether any mandatory qualifications are required for the post; • the qualifications and expertise of the teacher relevant to the post; and • the relative demands of the post. 	Part 4 of the STPCD sets out the range to be applied. Schools should ensure that they have considered the full range of payments available and that the values chosen are properly positioned between the minimum and maximum established in the national framework The governing body will also establish differential values in relation to SEN roles in the school in order to reflect significant differences in the nature and challenge of the work entailed so that the different payment levels can be objectively justified. SEN allowances may be held at the same time as TLRs. However, the Governing Body should, when reviewing their staffing structure keep them under review and follow the general principles at paragraph 21

Performance Related Pay: Benchmarking Framework for assessing Teachers' performance against the professional standards.

May 2013

The Role of Professional Standards in determining Teachers' Pay

- The Teachers' Professional Standards apply to all teachers regardless of their career stage, and define the minimum level of practice expected of teachers from the point of being awarded QTS
- With effect from September 2013, the performance of teachers against these standards will determine whether or not they progress up the pay scales.
- As a result, the standards will need to be applied as appropriate to the role and context within which a teacher is practising. Pay progression will be determined as a result of a consideration of how the teacher's performance compares with the professional standards, and the expectations which a Headteacher or appraiser may reasonably expect of a teacher paid at a certain level.
- Pay should reflect the standard of the Teacher's work, and this is not linked to chronological progression.
- Headteachers (or appraisers) will therefore assess qualified teachers against the standards to a level that is consistent with what should reasonably be expected of a teacher in the relevant role; where a teacher is performing at a level commensurate with the expectations of performance at a given pay level, it is for the Headteacher or appraiser to determine the level of pay for the teacher. This may include Upper Pay Spine pay, should the teacher request this at any stage of their career, and should their performance be commensurate with working at that level.
- The professional judgement of head teachers and appraisers will therefore be central to appraisal against these standards, and any subsequent pay progression. This document is designed to support Headteachers and appraisers in carrying out their task, and to maintain consistency between appraisal judgements in the same school and across schools in the East Riding. The purpose of this is to ensure that all teachers are treated with equal fairness, and that the standards applied when recommending progression up the pay scales are uniform throughout the Local Authority. When teachers move schools, the judgements made about their performance will allow their new Headteacher to be secure in recommending a particular level of pay and all schools will be able to demonstrate a clear link between standards and pay.
- In order to meet the standards, a teacher will need to demonstrate that their practice is consistent with the definition set out in the Preamble, and that they consistently meet the standards in both Part 1 and Part 2 of the Teachers' Professional Standards document. They should also be successful in meeting their specific appraisal objectives to a degree which satisfies the Headteacher or appraiser that they have undertaken the degree of work necessary for successful completion, allowing for circumstances which may have impeded absolute conformity with the expectations of the objective.
- This document has been designed to set out a basic framework within which all teachers should operate from the point of initial qualification onwards. Appropriate self-evaluation, reflection and professional development activity is critical to improving teachers' practice at all career stages. The standards set out clearly the key areas in which a teacher should be able to assess his or her own practice, and receive feedback from colleagues. As their careers progress, teachers will be expected to extend the depth and breadth of knowledge, skill and understanding that they demonstrate in meeting the standards, as is judged to be appropriate to the role they are fulfilling and the context in which they are working.

The Standards

Preamble

Teachers make the education of their pupils their first concern, and are accountable for achieving the highest possible standards in work and conduct. Teachers act with honesty and integrity; have strong subject knowledge, keep their knowledge and skills as teachers up-to-date and are self-critical; forge positive professional relationships; and work with parents in the best interests of their pupils.

Benchmarking Framework of Expectations at given Pay levels.

Judgements should be made against both conditional and absolute criteria.

Conditional criteria are those which are exhibited in the behaviours of teachers who comply with the requirements of the Professional Standards; such behaviours are observable, but not necessarily quantifiable. They will usually be measured through appraisal objectives

Absolute criteria are those which can be clearly measured, and should form at least part of the evidence submitted by the teacher as proof of overall performance. There are two effective quantifiable data measures

1. pupil progress

A judgement should be made, against expectations determined by the school, of the extent to which pupils make progress:

- Broadly in line with expectations: which would lead to a judgement of “requires improvement”
- Better than expected which would lead to a judgement of “good”
- Significantly better than expected which would lead to a judgement of “outstanding.”

2. lesson observation outcomes

A judgement should be made about the extent to which teaching is habitually observed which

- requires improvement
- is good
- is outstanding

There will usually be clear correlation between the quality of teaching and the pupil progress judgements, and the policy should make it clear as to how these judgements will be used in determining overall performance, and therefore pay progression.

Pay scales suggest six referencing points on the Main-scale; and three further referencing points may be established on the Upper Pay Spine.

Teachers operating at standards which show

- Emergent practice (reference points 1-2): are able to show these characteristics within their own classroom, not necessarily consistently, will show an increasingly secure grasp of attainment standards, so that their assessment of pupils’ progress is increasingly reliable, but they will not yet demonstrate readiness to share their practice beyond their immediate sphere of operation; they will, in primary schools, be developing the skills of subject coordination. Teaching may still require improvement, but teachers are working towards good.

- Expected practice (reference points 3-6): will be consistent in their performance, secure in their judgements, so that they can contribute positively and accurately to analysis of pupils' progress, and be developing elements of their practice which may show influence outside their immediate sphere of operation, i.e. within their Year Group, Key Stage or Department; where required to do so, this will include effective subject coordination at primary level. Teaching will usually be good, and may show outstanding features
- Exceeding expected practice (Upper Pay Spine): will make a sustained and effective contribution to the formulation and implementation of school policy; their teaching is of a standard which can influence the practice of others in the school, and they can be seen as role models, for instance in the mentoring of Newly Qualified Teachers. They should be proactive in seeking opportunities to influence and shape the direction of practice and to show understanding of the standards of pupils' performance, so that they can moderate the judgements of less skilled teachers. Headteachers' Salary Assessment – in accordance with Part 2 of the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document 2016

Stage 1 - Defining the role and determining the headteacher group

Define and set out the specific role, responsibilities and accountabilities of the post as well as the skills and relevant competences required.

For headteacher posts you should assign the school to a headteacher group which will determine the appropriate broad pay range. This should be done by calculating the total unit score for the school as follows:-

Key Stage	Units per pupil (F.T.E)
Preliminary, first or second key stage	7
Third key stage	9
Fourth key stage	11
Fifth key stage	13

Pupil numbers are based on the most recent School Census figures. Pupils who attend for half a day count as half the units of a full-timer.

Each pupil with a statement of special educational needs, if in a special class consisting wholly or mainly of such pupils, should be counted as three units more. If not in a special class they should be counted as three points more only if the Governing Body determines. Advice should be sought from HR in these circumstances.

Unit totals and Head Teacher Groups

Total Unit Score	School Group
Up to 1000	1
1001 to 2200	2
2201 to 3500	3
3501 to 5000	4
5001 to 7500	5
7501 to 11000	6
11001 to 17000	7
17001 and over	8

Group	Range of Spine Points
1	6 - 18
2	8 - 21
3	11 - 24
4	14 - 27
5	18 - 31
6	21 - 35
7	24 - 39
8	28 - 43

For Current Leadership Pay Scale see Appendix 4

Special Schools

Calculation of the group for Special Schools takes into account both pupil and staffing numbers see Part 4 of the STPCD (2014) or contact the HR Help desk for guidance HR.AdviceCentre@eastriding.gov.uk. Once the Group has been determined the pay is determined in the same way as ordinary schools

Calculation of Group Examples

Secondary

Key Stage 3 - $427 \times 9 = 3843$

Key Stage 4 - $280 \times 11 = 3080$

Key Stage 5 - $133 \times 13 = 1729$

Unit Total = 8652

Using the above tables a unit total of 8652 indicates that the school is in Group 6 and that the range from which the indicative pay range should be selected is 21 to 35

Primary

Key Stage 1 - $70 \times 7 = 490$ Unit Total

490 unit total indicates that the school is Group 1 and that the range from which the indicative pay range should be selected is 6 to 18.

A school is assigned to a group which will determine the appropriate broad pay range,. At this stage ensure that the total unit score has been modified to include, where appropriate, permanent responsibility for additional schools

Stage 2 – Setting the indicative pay range

Discretionary payments, such as allowances for recruitment and retention, permanent additional responsibilities (e.g. the provision of initial teacher training (ITT)), and long-term provision to other schools, should be captured at this stage.

The total unit score should normally fully capture the complexity of the headteacher role and that the relevant broad pay range accommodates appropriate levels of reward.

Consideration should be given to whether the indicative pay range should start at the minimum of the headteacher group or whether it should start at a higher level because of the level of challenge of the post.

There may be circumstances in which there are additional factors that suggest the indicative pay range should be higher than would be provided by the basic calculation in stage 1. Below are some examples.

- the context and challenge arising from pupils needs e.g. if there is a high level of deprivation in the community (Free School Meal (FSM) entitlement and/or English as an Additional Language indicators may be relevant) or there are high numbers of looked after children or children with special needs or there is a high level of in-year churn/pupil mobility, and this affects the challenge in relation to improving outcomes;

- a high degree of complexity and challenge e.g. accountability for multiple schools or managing across several dispersed sites, which goes significantly beyond that expected of any headteacher of similar-sized school(s) and is not already reflected in the total unit score used at stage 1;
- additional accountability not reflected in stage 1 e.g. leading a teaching school alliance;
- factors that may impede the school's ability to attract a field of appropriately qualified and experienced leadership candidates, e.g. location; specialism; level of support from the wider leadership team.

Please note the list is not exhaustive and provides initial guidance only. If you are considering setting the indicative pay range with a maximum of up to 25% above the top of the relevant headteacher group range further guidance should be sought from HR..

Above that limit, external independent advice must be sought and, should the advice suggest additional payment is appropriate; a business case must be made and agreed by the Local Authority and full governing body.

You should ensure that no double counting takes place, e.g. of things taken account of in stage 1, such as responsibility for an additional school already reflected in the total unit score; or from using overlapping indicators, such as FSM and the pupil premium.

You should not increase base pay nor pay an additional allowance for regular local collaboration which is part of the role of all headteachers.

For other leadership roles the process is broadly the same. You will wish to consider how the other leadership roles should be set in accordance with the level set for the headteacher and ensure that there is sufficient scope for progression and appropriate differential between the pay ranges for different leadership posts. The pay range for a deputy or assistant headteacher will only overlap the head teacher's pay range in exceptional circumstances.

You must also you consider the equality implications of any decisions over differentials and seek HR guidance on this matter if required.

At the end of this stage you should decide where in the broad range to position the indicative pay range and set this out clearly when you advertise the job. You should make an overall judgement on the position and breadth of range, allowing appropriate scope for performance-related progression over time, clearly linked to school improvement priorities and outcomes.

Consider any relevant benchmarking information available that would support your judgement and justify the pay range and ensure there is a clear audit trail for all decisions made and the reasoning behind them.

Stage 3 – Deciding the starting salary and individual pay range

The first two stages provide the means for determining the appropriate pay range. The third stage is essentially about deciding on the starting salary for the individual who is to be offered the post.

At this stage there should be a preferred candidate for the role and the starting salary should be set in the light of candidate-specific factors, such as the extent to which the candidate meets the specific requirements of the post. There must be scope for performance-related progression over time.

Ensure there an audit trail to show the basis on which decisions have been made.

Fixed-term contracts

The expectation is that the vast majority of headteacher appointments will be on permanent contracts.

A fixed-term contract may be considered where the Governing Body determine that the circumstances of the school require it, for example to attract a good candidate where there is a high degree of professional risk associated with the task, such as turning around a school assessed to be vulnerable to a poor Ofsted judgement or a school that is judged as requiring improvement or special measures. In establishing such a contract please seek advice on how reward should be structured and whether achievement of objectives should be assessed over a shorter or longer timescale than would normally be the case. This will need to be reflected in the Pay Policy
